At Interior Resources Group, reputation is everything. We proudly supply the educational community with unparalleled quality, superior design and unmatched after sales support. Dedicated to working with educational organizations, architects and designers, IR Group believes learning should be enriched by the setting where it occurs, wherever this takes place. The most powerful learning spaces should be versatile, social, inventive and enduring.

Our goal is to support the learning experience by emphasizing on human-centered designs— furniture that is comfortable, approachable and facilitates collaboration. Features that enhance the learning process— tools that support technology and help instructors engage learners. Ultimate flexibility— pieces that are easy to move and reconfigure, from day to day, hour to hour and into the future. Lasting durability— furniture that withstands the rigors of heavy-use environments and features clean, timeless design that will remain relevant for years to come.

IR Group represents over 200 of the most widely respected brands, while also holding the exclusive Select Dealer relationship with Kimball. Our customers can rest easy knowing our team of trained negotiators will leverage every resource available, resulting in the most competitive terms and pricing.

Employing an in-house team of the most talented, brightest minds continues to be our focus. Partner with IR Group and expect a combination of top-notch support and paramount quality. No matter the budget, we won't stop until your vision is executed seamlessly.
